

Persecuted Christians

28 february
– 6 march

Despite more attention on human rights from the West, and pleas being made for religious and political freedom, there are still millions of believers in North Africa and the Middle East who face persecution and death on a regular basis.

Please stand with us in praying for those who do not have the same freedoms as we do.

PRAY FOR:

SUNDAY

28

Algerian believers who are still being affected by the new laws limiting their Christian expression. Pray that they will stand firm in their faith.

MONDAY

1

The protection of many believers in Iran who are still having to meet in secret. After the recent elections, persecution has increased.

TUESDAY

2

The church planter that BMS supports in northern Iraq and the many opportunities he has to share his faith.

WEDNESDAY

3

The end to mistreatment of believers in Egypt – often from family and ‘friends’.

THURSDAY

4

More opportunities for missionaries to go and work alongside and support persecuted believers in Libya as the country continues to open up.

FRIDAY

5

Israel and Palestine, where many believers continue to be subject to humiliation and persecution.

SATURDAY

6

The attitudes of governments in North Africa and the Middle East – that there will be leaders whose lives are changed by the love of Christ.

PRAYER & praise

BMS TEACHER MAT GREGORY IS DEVELOPING EDUCATIONAL MATERIALS FOR CHILDREN OF REFUGEES IN LEBANON. AS WELL AS TERM-TIME SCHOOLING, RECREATIONAL CAMPS ARE HELD DURING HOLIDAYS:

“Last summer, we held two programmes. Each went very well and the children enjoyed taking part in new activities – swimming at a local pool and a day at the river! Praise God for the provision of teams who are willing to give of their time to serve him in this way.”

The Egyptian government does not recognise conversions from Islam to Christianity or certain interfaith marriages
